Upset at board's choice

I am upset at the choice of the Campbell high school district board last week. I feel they should have picked someone who has children attending school in the district. How many of the five trustees do have children attending Campbell schools?

Curious

Editor's note: According to Superintendent Nick Montesano, two trustees presently have children attending district schools, one has children in elementary school who will attend later, one is a bachelor and the other has children who have graduated from local schools.

I got a ticket for parking in a red zone last week. I'm very, very irate about it. The area is blocked off and I cannot understand why it is a red zone. I'm a merchant on Campbell avenue and parked to unload some supplies. It's done every day. I feel that red zone is not legal.

E.C.

Editor's note: I took a look at the area last Friday and there is some question about which space you were parking in. The area farthest east, between Central and First st., is clearly a red zone. The two parking space areas behind it are so faded as to not even qualify as "pink zones." According to Keith Manley, assistant civil engineer, he had gone out to take a look after receiving complaints from two Campbell avenue merchants about people illegally parking in the red zones. He says he first tried to find the owners of the vehicles before reporting them to Campbell police, who issued the tickets. He agrees that there is no longer a need for a red zone

What with wet weather and frosty mornings it's hard to plan what to wear these days. Eight year old Shelby Pierce solved the problem last week by bundling up in her rain-repellent coat, plus mittens and a scarf. The rain storm, complete with a downpour Monday night dumped .84 inches of rain on Campbell streets bringing the season total to date to .97 inches as of Tuesday morning. Normal to date is 2.22 inches and last year at this time Campbell had recorded 1.42 inches. Bob James of the Campbell Water Company says this season won't be as wet as last year when the rain gauge measured 24.02 inches of rain. But he feels we'll reach 20 inches, almost 5 inches above normal.

Goble appointed

Rocky school board session

DOROTHY GOBLE, 12-year veteran of the Campbell high school district Board of Trustees, was returned to her post at a special meeting last week.

The former trustee, one of three finalists for a vacancy on the board, was appointed after a 2½ hour session marked by 2-1 votes (A total of 3 votes was needed to fill the post). At one point, an executive session was called to try and break the deadlock.

That approach was evidently successful as Trustee Steve Tedesco, after supporting C.B. (Sonny) Towner most of the evening, reluctently cast the third vote for Goble.

"I have nothing against Dorothy," Tedesco said after the vote last week. "I think she's a fine lady. I just didn't think she was the most qualified candidate ... and she has already served 12 years on the board."

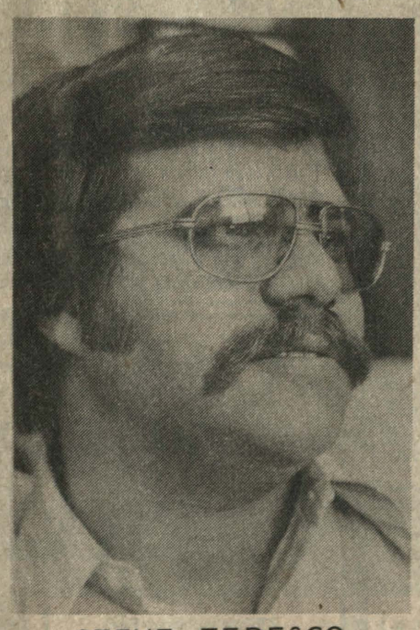
TEDESCO SAID he finally switched his vote when it was apparent the two other board members (President Ray Silva and Trustee (William Murphy) would not consider any candidate other than Goble. A continued deadlock would have forced the district into a special election at an estimated cost of $20,000.

Goble, who was unseated in her fourth try for elective office in March of 1977, ran a close third to Tedesco, who was appointed shortly before the election but was not able to use the term "incumbant" after his name on the ballot. He polled 4,928 votes to Goble's 4,920.

The top vote getter in that election however was a relative unknown listed on the ballot as "Craig Smith, police officer."

Ironically it was Smith, who resigned recently to accept a scholarshop at an Oregon university, who gave Goble back her seat.

A total of 14 hopefuls applied for the vacancy. From these, five semi-finalists were chosen and later, three finalists. They included Goble, Towner and Sarah Dunham.



STEVE TEDESCO
Ended deadlock.

TOWNER WAS reportedly the first choice of 9 of the 10 members of the district selection committee. On a point system he garnered a reported 27 votes compared to 18-19 for Goble and Dunham. The committee was made up of Silva, Tedesco and 8 parent leaders from the district high schools.

When it became apparent no appointment was forthcoming at the November 14 meeting those committee members were called into executive session with the school board.

Tedesco and some members of the committee reportedly tried to persuade the two other board members to support Towner during that session. Parent leaders also made it clear they expected the board to reach some compromise to avoid a special election.

After the closed session Tedesco made that compromise.

Earlier that evening, after failing to win fellow board members support of Towner, Tedesco nominated Dunham and Coralie Wagner, fourth place candidate. There was no second to the nominations.

THE SELECTION of a fifth board member in the usually staid district has been marked by bitterness and controversy. Some of those applicants who were not named finalists were critical of the selection process and Trustee Mac Martinez, absent that night submitted a letter to the board stating he planned to abstain that night, had he been there, as a protest over the board's "gross neglect" in following its own policy. He also questioned the selection committee's procedures.

Martinez was a member of an accreditation team for Western Association of Schools and Colleges visiting El Centro during the board session.

The new trustee, known for her conciliatory manner, joins the board during what may be its most difficult period in recent years. With declining student enrollment at 6 percent this year, the board will have to face the prospect of closing school(s) next fall.

Thanksgiving wasn't always turkey 'n pie

THANKSGIVING wasn't built in a day. It took more than three centuries from the first Thanksgiving for the day to be set aside as a national holiday. And along the way, it was embellished by all sorts of people — including Greek mythology buffs and half a dozen political crusaders.

The first Thanksgiving was held in 1622:

"And, therefore, I, William Bradford (by the grace of God today,
And the franchise of this good people) governor of Plymouth say—
Through virtue of vested power — ye shall gather with one accord,
And hold in the month of November, thanksgiving unto the Lord."

Actually, Bradford didn't sound like that. Margaret Junkin Preston wrote that in a long poem called "The First Thanksgiving" more than two centuries later.

There are no records of a big November feast in 1623 — the year after Thanksgiving I.

From time to time, there are mentions in early New England history of other Thanksgivings. But the idea just didn't catch on. In fact it almost disappeared entirely.

But in 1789 an obscure New Jersey congressman took it upon himself to revive the November custom. Elias Boudinot, perhaps better known as one of the founders, was elected to the first U.S. Congress and promptly went to work on a resolution asking for a day to be set aside "of public thanksgiving and prayer."

No go for 'pay as you go'

After school sports could be a thing of the past in Campbell elementary district

By PAT SAFFORD

THE REACTION by parents to the lack of afterschool sports thie year has been underwhelming, according to a survey carried out recently in the Campbell elementary district.

According to Ken Meinecke, assistant superintendent; of the 1,600 to 1,700 survey forms sent out to test the parental waters for a "pay as you go system," just 60 were returned. And of those, some questioned why parents should have to pay at all.

But district trustees didn't abandon the idea at their meeting last Thursday night. Instead, they asked Meinecke to try one more time to see if there is support for extra-curricular sports such as basketball, track and gymnastics.

ACCORDING TO Meinecke, the price tag for most sports would be about $20 per junior high student to pay the cost of coaching salaries. (The district already has the equipment and uniforms.) Cost for basketball would have been about $40, because of less students involved.

In the post-Proposition 13 school budget, the community services override tax has been eliminated. That fund used to pay for after school sports, noon duty supervisors and some school maintenance.

Last year after school sports cost about $38,000, Meinecke said, with noon supervisors costing another $25,000.

Right now the district has $79,000 in unspent community services funds from prior years but, the administrator says, those funds will be used in programs that reach "a broader segment of the student population" . . . like summer recreation.

The lack of response to the survey was a surprise to most school officials.

"THERE HAS not been a hue and cry (over the lack of after school sports)," said Bob Turk, principal of Rolling Hills Junior High, "and that surprises me. I thought the roof would fall in."

Junior high students aren't known for diligence about taking papers from school home. Could that account for the low return?

"One school mailed their surveys out," Meinecke responded, "and they didn't get any bigger response than the others."

District-wide those responses equalled no more than eight students for any given sport; not nearly enough to field a team for the new West Valley junior high league.

And there was some confusion over the questions in the survey forms the district did receive.

"Many parents had questions," Meinecke said. Some thought the $20 was for equipment and uniforms and they didn't understand that. Others thought coaches volunteered their time to the schools.

"And some felt there was too much competition anyway and that kids don't need any more competition," Meinecke related.

THE DISTRICT followed up on the survey with calls to those 60 families who responded. Some parents were pleased that the district took the time t call and one woman thanked Meinecke (after learning the response had been poor) and said she would be signing her daughter up for private tennis lessons.

Two neighboring cities who are part of the new junior high league have curtailed programs this year. Both Los Gatos and Saratoga have adopted the "pay as you go" approach. Los Gatos parents pay $20 per sport while Saratogans fork out $15. Both cities have programs going.

In the Moreland district, according to Meinecke, the after school program is being financed out of the General Fund.

Cupertino has been struggling with a fundraising program. A Sports-a-thon held earlier this year raised about $10,000 to fund a 6-7 week program. After school sports have been suspended until January while interested parents try to persuade local business owners to underwrite the additional $5,000 needed for the overall cost of $32,000.

GETTING FUND'S from the local business community was one suggestion made by a sports-minded Campbell parent and that approach will be undertaken by the "five or six" very active parents, Meinecke said.

The administrator will be focusing on student interest. If the desire for after school sports is there, Meinecke says, the district will explore students holding fund raising activities and possibly using student body funds to put those sports programs across.

A report on his efforts is due back at the December 14 meeting.

Last year about 600 students took part in the sports program. With some students signing up for more than one sport the overall average was about 20 percent of all junior high youngsters.

THE STUMBLING block to getting those students into their soccer or football uniforms this year my be strictly economic. At Rolling Hills for instance, an informal poll of students showed that 322 say they would take part in a free after school program. On the survey form however, the parents of only about 30 of those students said they would pay the tab.

BASKETBALL season is in full swing in P.E. classes in the Campbell elementary school district this fall. But there is no after school basketball league. Football and basketball also went by the boards this year. With wrestling, track and gymnastics season coming up, school district officials have been trying to find out if parents are willing to underwrite the cost of coaches salaries. The response, so far, has been disappointing.

Virginia avenue sidewalks bid opening slated Dec. 7

Sidewalks along Virginia avenue, between Hacienda and Steinway, could be installed soon . . . if the rains clear up and the city gets a low bidder December 7.

The City Council gave the go ahead to call for bids at their last meeting. Bid opening has been set for December 7 with possible award of the contract December 11.

The sidewalk project has been the focus of much discussion since originally proposed last year.

Residents along that stretch of Virginia opposed the project on the grounds it would spoil the present rural atmosphere while school officials and parents from Capri School said sidewalks were needed for student safety.

Earlier this year the sidewalk was included in a safer roads federally funded proposal but was dropped when bids came in well above earlier estimates.

During a hearing on the city's capital improvement budget this year the project was again brought up with parents and the principal making a plea for the sidewalks.

At the last council session Frances Cucuzza, 1297 Virginia ave., asked the council to reconsider their action.

"Had the property owners been notified of said meeting (where the project was discussed) we should have been in attendance to once again voice our opposition to the installation of sidewalks on our properties," she wrote.

The letter was noted and filed and the council unanimously authorized the call for bids.

The 'mustard man' is in . . . a pickle

Emile the Mustard Man can sell hot dogs from his rented cart, the city council decided at their last meeting, as long as he stays within The Factory shopping center.

James Lemmon (Emile) appeared before councilmen to try and obtain a waiver of the $30 a day vendors' fee for operating a mobile business in The Factory and The Bodega parking areas during late evening hours.

"If necessary, I wouldn't even be mobile," he offered.

Police Chief Don Burr told officials he was concerned with granting a permit to operate along the busy south loop street (Orchard City drive).

"The south loop is a very busy street," Councilman Bill Podgorsek told Lemmon. I'm opposed to it. If I thought you would pay the $30 a day fee, I would be willing to go to $60."

Councilman Rusty Hammer made a motion to allow Lemmon to operate with a $50 a year business license provided he stays within the confines of The Factory and with the okay of the Police Chief. The motion passed unanimously.

Neighborhood protest

Townhouse project scuttled by council

MORE THAN 20 San Tomas area residents stayed past 1 a.m. at the last city council session to voice opposition to plans for a townhouse development at 1785 and 1801 W. Hacienda avenue.

After a lengthy hearing on the issue the council voted 4-1 to deny the proposal without prejudice (Councilman Podgorsek opposed). The designation "without prejudice" allows the applicant to reapply to the Planning Department without paying another fee to the city.

Spokesmen for the opposition included Joann Fairbanks, Dennis Labate and Jim Weller. Speaking in favor of the proposal was Vic Stanton, the developer, the realtor handling the transaction and the architectural designer.

Neighborhood residents, opposed to the proposal, had mounted a campaign in recent weeks to seek signatures and letters of protest. About 24 letters had been received by the council along with a petition signed by 60 residents calling for limiting development to single family homes.

THE REALTOR presented a counter petition with more than 100 signatures "of people who believe in townhouses in concept." Councilman Rusty Hammer later questioned that petition noting that only about 5 of the signatures were from Campbell people. The rest were from Santa Clara, Mt. View and San Jose.

The realtor explained the the signatures were obtained from townhouse communities in the valley.

The opposition cited the rural atmosphere of the neighborhood and asked the council to preserve it.

The realtor countered that the neighborhood is a "conglomerate" of housing styles and includes a chicken farm and mobile homes in one backyard. She was critical of the lack of maintenance of some homes in the area; noting that the two property owners involved in the project are "two of the worst offenders. It would be a service to the community to clean up those lots and put in a development," she added.

DEVELOPER VIC Stanton, critical of a letter which appeared in the PRESS two weeks ago, said the cost of the project so far is close to $6,000. He minimized the opposition stating the 24 letters of protest the council had received came "from an all-out campaign by 3 or 4 people."

Central to the townhouse issue has been an apartment house development at 1800 Hacienda, built in 1964.

The applicants cite that building as evidence higher density development has been approved in the past. The opposition charges it is "spot zoning" initiated by a former city building inspector who "controlled his own permit process."

Members of the West Hacienda Avenue Area Neighborhood Group say that apartment development was built by Leonard Pritchard, then owner, "under circumstances of very questionable propriety and local resentment." The city building department investigated the charges.

While none of the present building staffers were employees of the city at that time (February 6, 1964), a check of the records shows that "95 percent of the inspections were made by other persons in the Building Department than Leonard Pritchard," says Building Official Wally Bryon.

"THE DEPARTMENT records also show that all required fees were paid prior to the issuance of the building permit. These include storm drains, performance bond, street improvements, curbs, gutters and sidewalks."

In a letter from the neighborhood group one paragraph states "Our examination of Building and Planning Department records and conversations with City employees and officials revealed actual indications of impropriety or inappropriate procedure on the city's part."

Byron responded. "I have spoken to all of the personnel in the Building Department, and as none of them worked here at that particular time, they would have very little knowledge of what would have transpired. Our secretary states that the only investigation was of the Building Department folder for 1800 Hacienda, which in my opinion, is complete and intact."

At the last hearing before the Planning Commission no recommendation on the Townhouses was made as commissioners deadlocked 3-3 on the proposal. Planning staff, the architectural advisor and the site and architectural review committee had recommended approval.

O'Connor proposal

Pain center is planned

WHILE WORKMEN refurbish O'Connor Hospital at Campbell (formerly Campbell Community Hospital), planning is underway to determine what type of medical services to offer there.

O'Connor already has plans for 10 of the acute care beds in the 48-bed facility.

"We do plan a pain center," says Teddi Husseini, director of public relations, "for treatment of people with chronic pain." Those with intractable pain from numerous operations, injury or chronic health problems will be treated in a 3 to 4 week program directed by physicians using physical therapists, psychologists and nurses in a "daily structured routine."

Dr. Philipp Lippe, President of the county medical society, is one of the organizers of the pain center, a first in Santa Clara County. At present there are facilities for treatment of chronic pain in San Francisco, San Diego, Oregon, Washington and at the City of Hope.

"BUT THERE'S nothing like it in this area," Husseini said. "We hope for a mid-January opening."

Before drafting plans for the remaining 38-beds, O'Connor sought ideas from the community. If a recent hearing held by the Civic Improvement Commission is any indication, the prime health service need in Campbell is for senior citizens.

About nine people spoke at that hour-long hearing; all outlining needs of seniors.

A representative of the Campbell Progressive Seniors said some type of emergency facility is needed to take care of those with heart problems and emphysema, for instance. The need for X-ray services was also noted.

Frank Freeland representing the Senior Adult Forum and the American Association of Retired Persons said there is a need for general senior citizen care.

GERTRUDE KNOTT, from the Council on Aging, informed the commission of the bill of rights for senior citizens recently enacted by the board of supervisors which addresses the quality of health care for seniors.

Other needed services cited were for home care by representatives of Wesley Manor and the county housing authority) in which check-ups, shots and help with medication is offered. (O'Connor does have a home care department which has been operating for about a year).

Members of the city commission also had some recommendations on the type of services they'd like to see at the new facility. These include community care for the terminally ill, a stress clinic and a community drug abuse program.

ACTING FIRE Chief Tony Pini also appeared at the hearing. He said the fire department (paramedics) wants to set up a working relationsip with O'Connor.

While planning goes on the small hospital on Winchester boulevard, south of Hamilton, is getting a facelift, inside and out. Most of the exterior work is complete and the interior painting and recarpeting is expected to be completed in the next two weeks.

Taxi anyone?

Senior citizens and disabled persons living in Campbell will soon be able to "call a cab" at 50 cents a ride.

The taxi subsidy program gets underway Friday, December 1, and one-way ride tickets are now being sold at Campbell Community Services, 75 N. Central ave.

To qualify seniors must be 60 years of age and older who live within the city limits and are certified as eligible participants for the program. This can be done by visiting community services at City Hall.

Permanently disabled persons living in Campbell 18 years and older may also apply.

Tickets purchased entitle the person to rides within the city limits and to a few additional locations, such as the Westgate shopping center and Valley Medical Center.

Rides are provided through a local cab company and the city picks up the difference in cost through a state grant.

in that area since the vacant lot is now blocked off by metal poles (formerly extra space was needed for cars pulling into and out of that lot). He says a work order has gone out to remove those zones and expects the work to be complete in the next two weeks. "If anyone had called in before (to report the change in the circumstances) we would have had it done months ago," Manley added. Watch out for our trademark

EDITOR:

This correspondence is in reference to an item in your August 17, 1978 newspaper headed "The Vasoline Man."

We certainly appreciate your mention of our products, but we wish to advise that "Chemical Mace" and "Mace" are the Trademarks of General Ordnance Equipment Company, for its non-lethal weapons and liquid contained therein.

You are undoubtedly aware that if our Trademarks come into wide use as generic terms, we might lose our Trademark rights to them; and we are sure you will want to assist us in preventing this.

In order to protect our rights, we would respectfully request that whenever the above Trademarks are used in any publication to describe any of our non-lethal police weapons they be treated as Trademarks, fully capitalized and, if possible, placed in quotation marks.

May we extend our thanks for your cooperation in this matter.

Impressions

A HERO AT HOME

The old adage "You're never a hero at home" didn't apply to Councilman Rusty Hammer in the recent state assembly race.

He outdistanced incumbent Assemblyman Richard Hayden more than 2 to 1 locally (4,233 to 1,967) but went down to a sound defeat district-wide.

A GIFT TO PARAMEDICS

LeRoy J. Craft, Sr. was so impressed with the service of the Campbell paramedics he recently sent in a donation of $500 to show his appreciation.

According to a report by Acting Fire Chief Tony Pini, Paramedics Rick Kincaid and Ray Rivero responded to a medical emergency at the Crafts' apartment on October 22 and found Mrs. Craft in need of immediate resuscitation. They revived her and accompanied her to Los Gatos Community Hospital where she was admitted.

"There is no doubt that the quick response and professional actions of these men saved her life," Pini reported.

The following morning her husband of 35 years, LeRoy, took time to stop by Station I to express his thanks and present the check for $500 as a donation to the Campbell Fire Department Paramedic Fund.

Craft later explained he hoped his donation would go toward saving another life.

"This is by far the largest donation we have received for our Paramedic Fund," Pini added.

Meetings set

Coventry, Bucknall schools may close

COVENTRY, Bucknall, Brookview and Amber Drive schools will close this June if the recommendation by Moreland district administration is ratified by the school board.

Last week the board set up four meetings in the school areas to discuss the proposed closings before board action is taken.

Meetings are set for Tuesday, November 28 at Payne School, Wednesday, November 29 at Latimer School, Thursday, November 30 at Baker and Thursday, December 7 at Country Lane. All sessions start at 7:30 p.m.

The long range district plans call for closing four more K-6 schools next June and that remaining elementary schools serve grades K-5. Middle schools would be established for 6-8th grades.

LAST WEEK Superintendent Dick Davis recommended that Payne School remain open to serve the Amber Drive-Payne School area; that Baker School stay open to serve the Bucknall-Baker attendance area; that Latimer School serve the Coventry-Latimer area and that Country Lane School remain open to serve the combined Brookview-Country Lane attendance area.

In the last eight years enrollment in the Moreland district has almost halved and during the past five years three elementary schools have been closed.

Trustees have been studying a long range school plan since February of 1977.

DINING GUIDE

as recommended by Bea René

WE GIVE THANKS FOR: 1) Efficient, friendly waitresses such as Annie Larkin at Mac's Tearoom; 2) Ed Worthan's taking over the empty Shirttail & reopening as the lovely Black Oak; 3) John Bikakis' generous & softhearted nature (his gruffness is only a facade); 4) Roy Nagasaki's challenging job — reopening the old Capt. A's to the lovely Los Altos House; 5) Talented restaurateurs like Louis Fruitchi, owner of L'Auberge, who makes you feel like every dinner is a "special occasion;" 6) Great professional dinner shows performed by Louis Gundunas & his talented son, Peter at The Balkan Village. 7) Old Fashioned dinner dancing at Costella's Chalet in Felton to old-time band leader, Bob Judd, who's been there 21 yrs.; 8) Menus that aren't too lengthy & complicated; 9) Attentive waiters — not hovering please; 10) Cold salad plates — hot dinner plates (& food to match); 11) Restaurants with tables placed for privacy; 12) Great 3rd generation restaurants such as Chez Yvonne, where son, Roger Frelier & grandson, Roger-Pierre serve the same fine cuisine, give attentive service & greet customers like old friends (& they generally are); 13) And most of all, we give thanks for a fine selection of good restaurants which offer many types of ethnic cuisine, diversified price ranges, unique decor & friendly service.

DO MENUS REALLY TELL THE TRUTH??? I remember seeing a menu on a recent trip that boldly proclaimed, "The fish you eat today was swimming yesterday in Chesapeake Bay" . . . the truth of the matter is, the fish in question had been "resting in peace" in the Restaurant's freezer, revived to be cooked & prepared for our dinner. . . The truth-in-menu movement is gaining consumer, if not legislative, attention all over the country — & regulations are being governed especially in Los Angeles & Washington, D.C. regarding the liberties restaurateurs can take — some are being strictly enforced. Here's just a few problems: Delivery of meat of a lower quality than that stated on the menu; listing a particular cut of meat or product on the menu then serving something else; serving margarine instead of butter; frozen vegetables when advertised fresh; cooked food trucked in, not prepared in the restaurant's kitchen, but only rewarmed to serve you (Micro-ovens have come in handy for this purpose). Generally speaking tho, we here on the Peninsula are lucky to have restaurants with a huge degree of integrity — they're becoming more gourmet, more specialized & certainly more competitive — so dine out with confidence . . . (however, if you have any doubts, don't hesitate to ask).

DINING — BRICKBATS — BIRTHDAYS: Look for big changes (all for the better) at FOUR SEASONS in Los Altos, where pretty Mgr. Susanna Tong greets everyone with a warm smile & sparkling personality. . . . Ada Lingo & I enjoyed a delicious dinner last Mon. at MAMA NEY'S, & this restaurant was "packed" . . . so business is roaring here — & on a Mon. nite yet . . . Received a "brickbat" from Carol of Los Altos who says 2 yrs. ago LA TERRACE was fine — now the service is lousy . . . & I quote, "At least 5 empty wine (?) glasses were left in the middle of the table during the entire meal — when they brought water they did not remove the empty clean glasses, just ignored same." She also had to flag down a waiter for service. I've had this happen at times, but I'd hate to give a restaurant a bad mark simply because of one faulty waiter — let's hope all is not lost — LA TERRACE does serve excellent cuisine (at least my last dinner was fine)... Clementine Fortini celebrated her 75th Diamond Jubilee birthday luncheon compliments of John Bikakis at his ECHO in Los Altos. She lives with her rooster, hens, fruit trees & gardens on her property that was cut in half by the Almaden Expressway — but she doesn't mind — but here's another story — my best wishes to Clementine!

THIS COLUMN appears in all 16 MEREDITH SUN Newspapers every week (over 350,000 circulation) — if you have some special story or news item regarding dining, food, entertainment or travel, send it along to Bea Rene', P.O. Box 368, Cupertino, Calif. 95014, or P.O.O Box 1240 Los Altos, Calif. 94022.

Newsbriefs

A SIGN CHANGE

The "Winchester" and "Campbell" street signs at the intersection of Campbell and Winchester will be changed soon to include the designations, "avenue" and "boulevard."

Complaints had come into the city shortly after those new signs were installed that they were confusing to motorists traveling through town.

Funds for this work, an estimated $500, will come from the approved budget of the Campbell-San Tomas Aquino road project.

CITY SHOULD STAY OUT

The Campbell Civic Improvement Commission has recommended that the City not take any stand on a rent stabilization (limit) program being proposed by a county group.

That action came at their November meeting.

Campbell area seniors (55 and older) are invited to an afternoon of holiday fare and entertainment on Tuesday, December 12, sponsored by Campbell Community Services.

Cost for the luncheon-party is $5 ($2.50 for members of Campbell Community Seniors) and the deadline for sign-ups is December 4.

The party will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at Zorba's restaurant in San Jose.

For information call 378-8141 weekdays or signup at City Hall.

ANOTHER UNIFICATION MOVE

A continued study of a proposal to unify Brookview School in the Moreland district and Marshall Lane in the Campbell district with the Saratoga School district will be discussed at a meeting on Tuesday, December 5 by the county committee on school district organization. The meeting starts at 7:30 p.m. at Rogers Junior High, 4835 Doyle road, San Jose.

Still another unification proposal will be presented to the county committee by the group of original petitioners. This one calls for unifying the Saratoga area only, including Prospect High School.

SENIOR RUMMAGE SALE

Campbell Progressive Seniors are planning a rummage sale on Friday and Saturday, December 1 and 2 at 41 W. Rincon ave.

Sale hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and no item will sell for more than $1.

HOLD THE DISCO

New and revised courses and programs for West Valley and Mission colleges were approved by district trustees last week with one exception; Disco Dancing 42 at Mission.

Trustees Foster Lopes and John Cantlen voted against the motion for the disco class, offered through the P.E. department. (Trustees Carol LaMarre and Wade Brummal were attending a conference in Colorado.)

Over the protests of some other members of Congress who said government had no business fiddling around in this area, resolution got through. George Washington issued the proclamation setting aside the last Thursday in November for the observance. Thanksgiving still remained largely a New England feast. But presidents kept sending out the proclamations each year until after the Civil War.

In the late 19th century, supporters of Thanksgiving again got presidential support for the holiday — and a proclamation. Several books appeared on Thanksgiving following the revival. One traced the feast all the way back to Greek and Roman days. Another offered a complete set of all the presidential proclamations.

AND A THIRD, entitled "How to Celebrate Thanksgiving" offered hints on making the day meaningful for children.

"Program for a Thanksgiving celebration.

"1. Opening song, 'Reward of labor.'

"2. Recitation for a primary pupil: 'Thanksgiving Philosophy.'

"3. Exercise for the primary department: 'Return of Thanksgiving.'"

It went on and on, carefully detailing how to celebrate the day.

Still, Thanksgiving lived just from year to year, depending on a presidential proclamation to keep it alive. It was this tenuous existence which prompted Ogden Nash to write:

"Thanksgiving, like ambassadors, cabinet officers and others smeared with political ointment.

"Depends for its existence on presidential appointment."

In the mid-1930s, President Franklin Roosevelt tried to wipe out this uncertainty. Thanksgiving was made a national holiday once and for all. But Roosevelt also changed the traditional day, causing an uproar in many states.

He set Thanksgiving as the fourth Thursday in November rather than the last one. Several states celebrated Thanksgiving on the presidential day that year while others celebrated it on the traditional one. Two states celebrated both.

Face lift for shopping center

Things are looking up at the Campbell Shopping Center at Latimer and Winchester since one of the owners, Westside Development Company, has been tackling part of the needed repairs. So far that firm has done reroofing, repaving part of the parking lot, along with instituting a regular sweeping program. The light standards in the parking lot have also been fixed. Earlier merchants withheld their rents in protest over the conditions at the center. A major stumbling block has been the fact that the center has several owners; some difficult to contact. Westside undertook the work on their part of the center on their own. Negotiations with the other owners is still continuing.

Children waiting

Many rewards for adoptive parents

Earl Peters of Campbell is one of hundreds of adoptive parents in the county being saluted during North American Adoption Week by the Children Home Society.

And there are many more youngsters in need of adoptive homes right now. These children are of all racial heritages, many are school aged (6 to 17 years) and some have medical problems. Others are in family groups of two or more.

Parents who have already adopted waiting children are enthusiastic. One couple, for instance, who adopted a family of four youngsters says "it's the most selfish thing we've done."

Another couple says adoption is facination because a child is already a person with thoughts and feelings of his own and you have immediate interaction.

Most adoptive parents find the process is much easier than they expected. They can call on the help of social workers, doctors, foster parents and agency people for support and financial assistance is available for children with special needs or medical problems.

Those interested in learning more about adoption can call the society office at 293-8940 or the Children's Services Bureau at 299-3311.

Bucs fall to Los Gatos

BUSTING LOOSE — Campbell running back Jackie Murdick busts loose for a short gainer in last week's 22-9 loss to traditional rival Los Gatos. The loss ended a disappointing 3-7 season for the Buccaneers.
(Photography by Bruce McClelland)

By RANDY FREY

IT WASN'T Thanksgiving Day, but Friday's Los Gatos-Campbell football game was filled with all the excitement of the traditional Turkey Day affair.

The players mobbed each other after touchdowns, the cheerleaders went home with only half their voice and bands from both schools provided plenty of halftime excitement.

But as is the case every year, only one team can go home happy, and for the ninth time in the last 10 years it was Los Gatos that walked away the victor.

One would have thought Los Gatos would have rolled over the Buccaneers, what with the Cats entering the game with an 8-1 record while Campbell stood at 3-6.

But, it was indeed the traditional game and Campbell was on top until late in the third period.

Los Gatos scored three touchdowns in the last 15 minutes, though, and upped its record in the traditional game to 27-14-3 with a 22-9 win.

"The guys played well for a while," said Campbell coach Wayne Brooks. "We had some drives going but penalties hurt us."

CAMPBELL MOVED the ball on the ground with ease all night long, but for some reason the Bucs kept going to the pass and the drives kept stalling out.

The Bucs took the opening kick and marched right over the Cats, going 55 yards in 13 plays before Dave Saccer booted a 26-yard field goal for the only score in the first half.

Dave Erkman did most of the work on that first drive, carrying the ball five times for 41 yards and catching two passes for another 14 yards.

But on second and goal to go from the five, Campbell was called for delay of game and had to settle for Saccer's field goal.

Brooks then called for an on-side kick in an effort to catch Los Gatos by surprise, but eh trick did not work and the Cats marched right down field. Los Gatos appeared ready to seocre when tailback Jeff Petulla fumbled, Kevin Bradley falling on the ball on the nine-yard line.

Again Campbell went to work on the ground, marching out to the 25 on five running plays. Then for some reason the Bucs went to the air, with no success.

"They came out and hit us very hard," said Los Gatos coach Charlie Wedemeyer. "They just moved us out on the line."

EVEN THOUGH Los Gatos had no points in the first half, the Cats were able to move the ball as well. On their second possession the Wildcats marched to the four yard line before fullback Dave Niemiec fumbled, Bradley again falling on the ball.

Two running plays moved the ball out to the 34-yard line, and on first and 10 Campbell quarterback Bob Greisinger threw an incomplete pass. Campbell ended up having to punt.

As time was running out in the half Los Gatos marched back down field, but the half ended with the Cats on the Campbell eight-yard line.

"I was disappointed in our mental mistakes and fumbles in the first half, but I'm proud of the way the kids came back in the second half," Wedemeyer said.

Come back Los Gatos did, scoring late in the third quarter on a 62-yard pass from Kent Gerber to Drew Petulla. Los Gatos never trailed after that.

Campbell took the ensuing kick and marched out to the 40-yard line before a holding penalty killed the drive.

Forced to punt, Campbell could not hold Los Gatos and running back Jeff Petulla, and just like that the Bucs trailed 14-3.

PETULLA CARRIED five times on the scoring drive for 20 yards, but it was Gerber who sneaked over for the score.

But just like that Campbell was back in the game, Greisinger dropping back to pass on first down following the kickoff and hitting Ken Schmidt in stride for 57 yards and a touchdown.

The Bucs went for the two-point conversion, but Greisinger fumbled the snap and the try failed.

Again Campbell went for the on-side kick, and again Los Gatos had the ball in good field position.

Niemiec and Petulla went to work on the ground, the fullback picking up 12 yards on three carries and Petulla 48 yards on five tries as Los Gatos marched 58 yards in nine plays for the game's final score.

Campbell tried a little razzle dazzle on the ensuing kickoff, but the reverse was fumbled, Wade Allison falling on the ball on the 11-yard line.

Greisinger quickly passed seven yards to Schmidt and 14 yards to Bradley for a first down beofre hitting Schmidt again for 20 yards down to the Los Gatos 41-yard line.

But time was running out and Campbell could move the ball only a few yards closer before the 46th Turkey Day game had become history.

Petulla led all rushers in the game with 153 yards on 26 carries. Niemiec had 45 yards on 11 tries.

ERKMAN WAS Campbell's leading ground gainer with 64 yards on 11 carries. He had 61 yards in the first half but carried only once in the final two quarters.

Jackie Murdick picked up 23 yards on eight carries, Dan Romeo had 21 yards on six tries and Greisinger had seven yards on five carries.

Through the air Greisinger was 12 for 24 for 152 yards. He had one pass intercepted.

Erkman caught five passes for 30 yards and Schmidt hauled in five for 106 yards and one touchdown. Bradley had one reception for 14 yards and Murdick had one catch for two yards.

Campbell racked up 276 yards total offense displaying a balanced attack. The Bucs had 152 passing and 124 rushing.

For 21 Campbell seniors it was their last football game in a Buccaneer uniform. Campbell will have 12 ballplayers returning for another season.

Silvas, Koontz spark Eagles to NorCal title

WHAT HAPPENED on the football field at Westmont high school last Sunday brought back memories of an old movie out of the late 1960's.

Raindrops were falling on the heads of the Campbell Eagles of the Police Athletic League and Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid were on the run!

The Eagles took on Ukiah at Westmont in the Northern California Youth Football Federation championship game and rolled to an impressive 50-28 victory thanks to the tandem of Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid, Thomas Silvas and Steve Koontz.

Silvas and Koontz, the vaunted running tandem of the Eagles, accounted for all 50 of the Campbell points in the victory. Silvas scored four touchdowns and kicked four two-point conversions and Koontz scored three touchdowns.

The Eagles actually trailed 22-6 at one point in the game and were trailing 22-20 at halftime.

But the Eagles held Ukiah to just one touchdown in the second half while Campbell was crossing the goalline four times to turn the tight ballgame into a rout.

The Eagles won the spot in the title NorCal game by whipping the Santa Teresa Bulldogs 16-6 a week earlier.

Silvas scored both Campbell touchdowns and kicked a pair of two-pointers to account for all of the Buc points.

Santa Teresa's only touchdown of the game came on a pass interception runback.

Third annual 'Decemberfest' set

CAMPBELL ROTARY Club president Al Jackson announced recently that the third annual "Decemberfest," a six-mile run, will be held Sunday, Dec. 3.

As in the past, registration will begin at 7:30 a.m. at Campbell high school with the race set to start at 9 a.m.

Registration fee is $3, with all proceeds earmarked for the Campbell Rotary Scholarship fund.

The race will send runners over sidewalks, dirt paths, paved blacktop and a quarter-mile school track. Runners will begin at Campbell Avenue, south on Winchester, east on Division and south on Dell Avenue.

They will then head east through Los Gatos Creek Park, south along the Los Gatos-Campbell Creek to Campbell Avenue and back to the Campbell high school parking lot.

The course record is 29:38, set last year by J. Renak.

Gold trophies will be awarded to the winners of the first three divisions with shoulder patches for all who finish.

There are divisions for runners of all ages in the AAU-sanctioned race.

Panthers nip Bruins in 2nd straight upset

By DAVE MENDONCA

IT WAS JUST two years ago this week that the Branham Bruins dealt the Prospect Panthers the most disappointing loss in their history.

On Thanksgiving Day, the Bruins deprived the Panthers of their first West Valley Athletic League Championship by dealing them a 26-20 defeat.

Well, the Panthers got their revenge last Friday on a chilly afternoon at Branham when Phil Rebboah drilled a 28 yard field goal in the closing seconds to lift Prospect to a 15-13 triumph.

The loss cost the Bruins a share of the WVAL title with Los Gatos.

"It was a fun game," remarked Prospect head coach Earl Adams. "It kind of reminded me of the way they beat us two years ago."

The Panther victory not only cost the Bruins a co-championship, it also lifted Prospect into a third place finish in the WVAL with a 5-3 record.

The Panthers, who started out the year by losing their first three games by an accumulative score of 128-33, wound up the season with a four game win streak and posted five wins in their last seven outings.

"WE STARTED out slow," admitted Adams. "It took a while for us to come together. And we played some tough teams early in the season."

It appeared as though the Bruins were well on their way to sharing the WVAL title with Los Gatos last Friday following a methodical 16 play, 93 yard march at the start of the second half that consumed 7:13 on the clock and snapped a 6-6 tie.

But the Panthers, who came from behind in four of the five games they won this year, got back in the game midway through the fourth quarter when junior tackle Greg Kent recovered a Bruin fumble at the Branham 30.

Seven plays later, Prospect's junior sensation, Dave Maloney, followed the lead block of fullback Randy Chase around left end for a 12 yard touchdown that cut Branham's lead to one point with just 2:22 left to play.

The Panthers tried for the two point conversion but this time Maloney was stopped just short of the endzone on a solid tackle by Branham's Ron Rodriguez.

Prospect was back in business just moments later, however, when Tom Motke recovered an onsides kick at midfield. It was the fourth onsides kick the Panthers recovered in seven tries this year.

JUST WHEN IT looked as though the Panthers' comeback bid would be thwarted, Maloney broke a fourth and four play for 25 yards down to the Bruin 19.

Three plays and a penalty later, Rebboah, who had missed early attempts of 46 and 57 yards, parted the uprights with his 28 yard field goal.

"It wasn't an easy kick," praised Adams. "I've seen some pros miss easier shots."

Maloney, who wound up the year over 1,000 yards, was a workhorse in the victory, toting the ball 28 times for 138 yards. Seven times he picked up Panther first downs.

Chase, who scored Prospect's first TD on a two yard run, ran 15 times for 44 yards.

"Sometimes he's overlooked because of Maloney, but Randy (Chase) does an excellent job of blocking for Dave and keeps people honest inside," Adams said of the Panthers' converted offensive guard.

While Maloney and Chase led the offense, linbacker Mark Anderson spearheaded the defense.

Anderson, a guard for the Panthers last year as a sophomore, made eight tackles.

"He just kept getting better every game," praised Adams.

Chase made six tackles, Motke made five and Mario Delgado, Greg Kent, Terry Kampe and Frank Smith each made four.

In addition to his game winning field goal, Rebboah picked off a pass that set-up the Panthers' first touchdown.

Chipping in solo doubles for the winners were Mike Porterfield and Dave Okahue.

Keith Sarkison belted a homer and Steve West clubbed a double for the Cosmos.

Killroy, meanwhile, dealt the No Names in a 6-2 defeat. Tim Woodside tripled in the win for Killroy.

Vengeance on minds of Tigers

THE SAN JOSE Tigers will have revenge in their eyes when they take on the Tacoma-Sumner Pierce County Bengals in Holiday Bowl II Sunday, Dec. 10 at Spartan Stadium.

San Jose has lost only one game in its two-year history, and that was one year ago against the Bengals in Holiday Bowl I.

Currently the No. 1-ranked minor league football team in the country, San Jose will be out to avenge that defeat, a loss which came as a result of a 70-yard fumble recovery return with 30 seconds to go.

Both teams are used to winning. San Jose has run up a 28-1 record in its two years of football play while Pierce County has a record of 62-2 over the past five years.

The Bengals have also added a new quarterback this year, Dan Graham, who passed for 1,800 yards and 17 touchdowns last season at Colorado State University.

But San Jose can match Graham with quarterback Craig Kimball, former San Jose State University signal caller who has passed for at least one touchdown in all 29 Tiger games.

This year Kimball has tossed for 2,520 yards and 35 touchdowns despite being taken out early in the third period in most games.

Eric Dahl, Kimball's favorite target, has caught 56 passes for 1,120 yards and 16 touchdowns.

THE TIGERS' biggest win of the year came in late September when coach Billy Wilson's club blasted the Shreveport Steamers, 32-6, down in Louisiana.

Shreveport was the No. 1 ranked team at the time and winner of the American Association League championship, but Kimball passed for three touchdowns, two to Dahl, as San Jose completely dominated the action.

Coach Steve Harshman of the Bengals thinks he has the club to beat San Jose, saying he did it last year so he can do it again this year. He also points out he has added six new players to the roster.

His Bengals have averaged 40 points per game while giving up only seven a game. San Jose is averaging 38 points per game while giving up just over seven.

The Bengals are sprinkled with Washington State and University of Washington players with the addition of several Colorado athletes.

Their biggest lineman, 6-foot, 260 pound Loren Mulkins, is out of Colorado State and is touted as one of the best minor league linemen in the country.

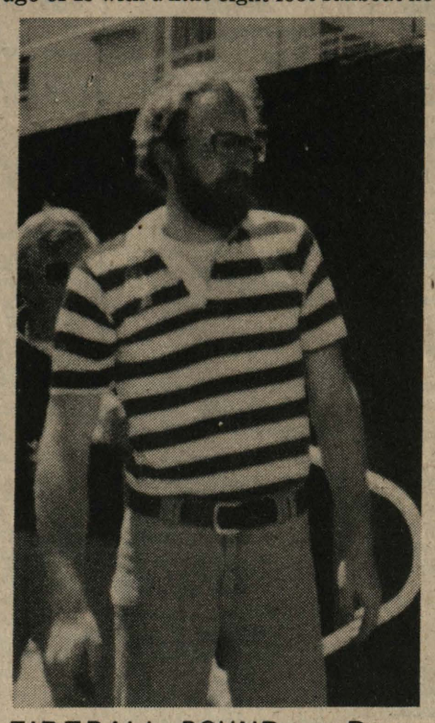
Prospect grad off to Fireball boat races

SAN JOSE'S Dave Mancebo will be the lone United States representative in the World Championship Fireball Races in Thailand later this month.

A 1971 graduate of Prospect High School, Mancebo and his crew mate Gordon Danielson of San Francisco will be racing a two-man trapeze dinghy weighing 175 pounds and being 16 feet in length.

Built by Mark Lindsay, it is one of only 12,000 Fireballs in the U.S.

Mancebo began his sailing career at the age of 13 with a little eight-foot sailboat he built by himself. He would practice at Vasona Lake in Los Gatos.



FIREBALL BOUND — Dave Mancebo, a Prospect high school graduate, is bound for the World Championship Fireball Races in Thailand later this month.

He is well-known in peninsula racing circles, having crewed in most of the bigger races. Mancebo and Danielson won the North American Championships in 1976 and the National Championships in 1977.

The two local racers will be the only competitors from the U.S. in a race which will include over 70 boats from countries all over the world.

The championship race will entail 10 days of competition. The first four days are reserved for International Week and warmups, with the final six days set aside for the strenous racing which will determine who is world champion.

SAILING CONDITIONS for the world championships are similar to those in the San Francisco Bay, Mancebo said.

There is a steep chop to the water and winds up to 20 knots, but temperatures in Thailand average 85 degrees with 90 percent humidity. The local sailors are used to the chilly conditions of the San Francisco Bay.

To prepare themselves for the race they have spent eight months in concentrated body conditioning as well as sailing three times a week for two hours a day.

Using aerobic exercise, running three miles a day and engaging in extensive calisthenics, the two U.S. racers feel they are in good shape.

The athletes are funding the trip to Thailand out of their own pockets, with the U.S. International Sailing Association providing money for shipping of their boat.

Mancebo is an employee of Guralnick and Associates, naval architects and marine engineers in San Francisco. He has studied design from Westlawn School of Naval Architecture and has designed and built a 24-foot racing boat, the Critical Mass, which won its first race upon completion earlier this year.

Campbell hunch basketball sign-ups set

SIGN-UPS are currently being conducted for a three-man hunch basketball league in Campbell.

The league, which will begin in January, will be held Thursday nights at Campbell high school from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Teams will play two out of three games to 30 points. There are no officials.

The league will be broken down into four divisions — 14-17 year olds under 6'; 14-29 year olds, 6' and over; 18-29 year olds, under 6'; and 30 and older.

Teams must have at least 60 percent of their roster living or working in Campbell.

There is a $15 registration fee for the league.

Teams interested in signing up should pick up a roster form at the City of Campbell Community Services office, 75 N. Central ave.

Shilling back with Cardinals

JUNIOR Ken Shilling of Campbell is returning for his third year of swimming at Stanford University.

Shilling qualifieid a year ago for the NCAA Championships, and he is expected to be one of the top breaststrokers on the Farm in 1978-79.
